Purpose Statement

This web based course is part of the PTSD 101 education series which are presented by experts in their field to increase provider knowledge related to the assessment and treatment issues of Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD). PTSD is one of the major disorders seen in Veterans, and these Veterans deserve effective treatment. However, there is a disparity in relation to the awareness of effective evidence-based treatments of PTSD. This course describes the clinical application of group therapy for PTSD and carefully evaluates the research support for group therapy. It also reviews the recommendations provided by the 2010 VA/DoD Clinical Practice Guideline for PTSD regarding the use of group therapy for PTSD.

Target Audience

Mental health leaders/clinicians, OEF/OIF coordinators and clinical managers, psychologists, social workers, nurses, and primary care clinicians.

Outcome/Objectives

At the conclusion of this educational program, learners will be able to:

1. describe group therapy for PTSD;
2. describe the important methodological factors to consider when evaluating clinical trial research on group treatment for PTSD;
3. evaluate the available research for group treatment; and
4. review the 2010 VA/DoD Clinical Practice Guideline for group treatment for PTSD.

Disclosure Statement

The VA Employee Education System (EES) must ensure balance, independence, objectivity, and scientific rigor in all of its individually sponsored or jointly EES sponsored educational activities. All prospective faculty and planning committee members participating in an EES activity must disclose any relevant financial interest or other relationship with: (a) the manufacturer(s) of any commercial product(s) and / or provider(s) of commercial services discussed in an educational presentation, and (b) any commercial supporters of the activity. Relevant financial interest or other relationship includes, but is not limited to, such things as personal receipt of grants or research support, employee or consultant status, stockholder, member of speakers' bureau, within the prior 12 months. EES is responsible for collecting such information from prospective planners and faculty, evaluating the disclosed information to determine if a conflict of interest is present and, if a conflict of interest is present, to resolve such conflict. Information regarding such disclosures and the resolution of the conflicts for planners and faculty shall be provided to activity participants. When an unlabeled use of a commercial product or an investigational use not yet approved by the FDA for any purpose is discussed during an educational activity, EES shall require the speaker to disclose that the product is not labeled for the use under discussion or that the product is still investigational.

The faculty and planning committee members reported that they had no relevant financial relationships with commercial entities in any amount that occurred within the past 12 months that create a conflict of interest.

This activity includes no discussion of uses of FDA regulated drugs or medical devices which are experimental or off-label.

* The ACCME defines "relevant financial relationships" as financial relationships in any amount occurring within the past 12 months that creates a conflict of interest.
